Bear Givers at JBS

One of the more unique installed I periodically do is a charity show for Bear Givers (<http://www.beargivers.org/>) at JBS. It features artwork drawn by children and some is surprisingly striking. The last show I installed included this work. For me this is the quintessential essence of a child's drawing of a train. Its perfect. It is if you asked an adult artist to make the perfect drawing of a train but from a child's view. I love it. I hope Desmond has a drawing in the next show.
